Come find out about Sudbury Catholic Schools and why it's a great place to teach!

We are currently scheduling interviews for those with complete teaching application packages.

Also, from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. we will hold a session on job interview preparation, professional portfolios, and address questions on work related topics.

This is an opportunity to learn what is special about working for Sudbury Catholic Schools!

Successful candidates will be hired directly to the preferred "A list".

All 2017 teacher graduates and qualified teachers are invited to contact the Sudbury Catholic District School Board at 705-673-5620 ext. 277 or e-mail ashley.snowden@sudburycatholicschools.ca for more information or to schedule an interview. We ask that you submit a Catholic Teacher Application package as soon as possible. It is available on our website at www.sudburycatholicschools.ca

Join our dynamic team of educators and embrace our longstanding tradition of quality, faith-based education. We are dedicated to nurturing and developing the mind, body and spirit of every student within our Catholic learning community of 13 elementary schools, 3 grades 7 to 12 schools, one secondary school and an adult learning centre. Our schools enjoy a vibrant relationship with parents, parishes, staff and the community to help all our students achieve their full potential and experience success.
